JOB DESCRIPTION:

Mad Science of Hertfordshire & Bedfordshire is looking for dynamic, fun presenters to deliver hands-on science experiments and demonstrations with groups of primary-aged children. Make slime, launch rockets, dig for dinosaurs and more!

Our programmes happen in schools, libraries, homes, and venues around Hertfordshire & Bedfordshire! We provide the knowledge, the know-how and equipment, and you provide the fun & inspiration!

ALL APPLICANTS ARE WELCOME AS LONG AS THEY:

- Have a very outgoing and fun personality
- Enjoy and have experience working with school-aged children (3-12 years)
- Have a strong work ethic (responsible, dependable, punctual, etc.)
- Have access to dependable transportation
- Are willing to have a full vetting / DBS check.

GOOD NEWS! A background in science is not required, we will teach you EVERYTHING you need to know!

WHAT WE OFFER:

- £30 - £45 per class - term time
- £70 - £100/day - holiday camps & term time events. (based on experience/ability)
- Experience-building, inspiring chance to make a big impact on the lives of little future scientists
- A job where you will learn new things, have fun with cool science gear and get paid to do it!
- The ability to make your own schedule.
